2008 ING New York Marathon

Sunday 2nd November 2008

Dear Enquirer

Thank you for your interest in running the 2008 ING New York Marathon for Scope. This famous marathon passes through New York's 5 boroughs including Brooklyn, Queens and Manhattan, goes over 5 bridges and has over 2 million spectators cheering on the 30,000 runners – what more do you need... there are no excuses!

Scope has guaranteed entries in this fantastic race and we'd be delighted to welcome you to the team. Scope is a leading national disability charity, working throughout England and Wales, whose focus is people with cerebral palsy (cp). Every six hours in the UK a child is born with cp – that's one in 400 births – making cp the most common cause of childhood physical disability. It's with the help of supporters, like yourself, that we're able to continue our vital work.

As part of the Scope NY Team you'll receive full email and telephone support from our highly experienced fundraisers, along with a runner's pack full of fundraising and training advice and an exclusive Scope running vest. We'll also be in New York to support you before and during the run, and to help the Scope NY Team celebrate afterwards!

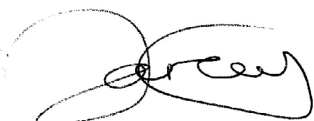

To be part of the Scope NY Team all we ask is that you raise £1,500 in sponsorship. You won't be tied in to any tour operators so you're free to make your own travel and accommodation arrangements; we'll provide loads of up to date travel information to make this easy for you. You can then make your stay in America as long or as short as you wish.

So what are you waiting for? Sign up now for the experience of a life time!

If you would like to sign up for one of Scope's Guaranteed Places, please complete the enclosed entry form and return to Scope at the above address with your £49 entry fee, and two passport photos. We will then send you your Running Pack full of fundraising ideas and training tips, your ID badge, authority letter, T-shirt, paying in book and sponsor forms.

If you have any queries about running the ING New York Marathon for Scope, please contact me on 020 7619 7288.

Kind regards,

Daniel Larcey (020 7619 7288)
